

public programs

at the Japanese American National Museum

Saturday, March 11 • 2:00 PM

A Divided Community A Staged Reading

Written by Momo Yashima & Frank Chin
Directed by Momo Yashima

A dramatic reading by actual resisters, Frank Emi, Mits Koshiyama and Yosh Kuromiya, and veteran Paul Tsuneishi, on the issues surrounding the U.S. government's persecution of Japanese Americans who resisted the World War II draft and the gaps that divided the Japanese American community.

FREE with Museum admission. Reservations recommended to 213.625.0414. Visit www.janm.org for more details.

Heart Mountain, WY by Yosh Kuromiya

JAPANESE AMERICAN NATIONAL MUSEUM

369 East First Street, Los Angeles, California 90012 • Tel 213.625.0414 • Fax 213.625.1770 • www.janm.org