

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,)
)
Plaintiff,)
)
vs.)
)
FRED TOYOSABURO KOREMATSU,)
)
Defendant.)

JUDGMENTS JUDGED
AND WRONGS REMEMBERED:

EXAMINING THE JAPANESE AMERICAN CIVIL LIBERTIES CASES OF WORLD WAR II ON THEIR 60TH ANNIVERSARY

Photograph courtesy of the Bancroft Library, University of California, Berkeley.

SAVE THE DATE!

JUDGMENTS JUDGED AND WRONGS REMEMBERED

NOV. 5-6, 2004

Japanese American National Museum,
Los Angeles, Calif.

- Plan to join us for a conference marking the 60th anniversary of Korematsu v. United States and the other Japanese American civil liberties cases of World War II, featuring:
- litigants, lawyers and law clerks from the cases that challenged the wartime incarceration of Japanese Americans.
 - leading historians and legal scholars
 - theater and dance interpreting the battles for justice
 - 5.75 hours of MCLE credit for CA attorneys

Conference brochure and registration available Summer 2004. For more information, contact The Japanese American National Museum at jguzman@jamn.org or (213)625-0414.

Sponsored by: University of North Carolina School of Law,
UCLA Asian American Studies Center and The Japanese American National Museum

